Taste of victory

A vibrant, hand-drawn style illustration of a boy and a girl eating ice cream. The boy, wearing a blue cap and a white t-shirt, holds a glass of milk. The girl, with blue hair and a red polka-dot dress, holds a wooden spoon. They are standing in front of a large, ornate building with multiple minarets, resembling a mosque. In the background, there are more buildings and a hazy sky.
