A colorful illustration of two children playing outdoors. A boy with dark hair, wearing a yellow and red striped shirt, orange pants, and blue boots, stands on the left holding a brown bowl filled with dark soil. A girl with blue hair in a red and white polka-dot dress, red boots, and a red bow in her hair sits on a green tricycle on the right, digging into the ground with a shovel. They are in a grassy area with a body of water and distant hills in the background.
